Registering to vote
*b. Voting
  c. Supporting a candidate or campaign
d. Education oneself about the issues and candidates

If you want to vote, the first thing you must do is _____.
  *a. register to vote
  b. get a driver's license
  c. join a political party
d. take a test

Electoral activities are defined as public engagement in the form of voting, running for office, volunteering in a campaign, or otherwise participating in elections.
  *a. Electoral activities
  b. Political capitalization
c. Electoral capitalization
d. Political

An example of political _____ would be students demonstrating against products made in sweatshops.
  *a. rights
  b. prejudices
  c. voice
d. thoughts

When people feel that the traditional forms of participation are not working, they sometimes seek change outside of normal channels and take _____ by participating in demonstrations, marches, armed stand-offs, and riots.
  a. indirect action
  b. revenge
  *c. direct action
d. disobedient action

Civil disobedience is defined as protesting laws one considers unjust by refusing to obey them and accepting the punishment.
  *a. Civil disobedience
  b. Political volunteering
c. Direct action
d. Civil defiance

Age is a strong predictor of political engagement: _____ people vote more often.
  a. middle-aged
b. younger
c. older
d. elderly

The greater their _____, the more likely individuals are to get involved in politics
a. income
b. status
c. church attendance
d. cultural values

_____ Americans voted at a slightly higher rate than _____ Americans in the 2012 presidential election.
a. African; white
b. African; Hispanic
c. Hispanic; Asian
d. White; African

Just under 50 percent of eligible voters in _____ communities vote.
a. African American
b. Latino and Asian American
c. White
d. African American, Latino, and Asian American

Political reform that is sparked "from the ground up" at the local level is referred to as a/an _____ movement.
a. grassroots
b. dog whistling
c. astroturf
d. reformation

_____ is defined as the effort to encourage people to engage in the public sphere: to vote for a particular candidate (or donate money, work on the campaign, etc.) or to get involved in specific issues.
a. Social capital
b. Political mobilization
c. Civil obedience
d. Social acclimation

_____ is the organized effort to advance (or block) a proposed public policy change.
a. Civil disobedience
b. Civil obedience
c. Issue advocacy
d. Civil advocacy
Receiving a federally guaranteed student loan can boost your political _____ later in life.
*a. participation
b. capital
c. voice
d. vote

_____ refers to the measure of the proportion of eligible voters that actually cast legitimate ballots in a given election.
*a. Voter turnout
b. Poll attendance
c. Voter assembly
d. Poll assemblage

According to _____, the cost of voting (acquiring necessary information, traveling to polling site, and waiting in line) outweighs the apparent benefits for most individuals.
*a. the irregularity of voting theory
b. the madness of voting theory *c. the paradox of voting theory
d. illogical voting theory _____ from public life may be described as a feeling of powerlessness or an inability to control one's own political fate.

*a. Alienation
b. Barriers to participation
c. Complacency
d. Willful separation

In 1964, many counties across the Jim Crow South required African Americans to take a literary test to vote. Alabama required black voters earn a score of _____ to vote.
*a. 40 percent
b. 50 percent
c. 75 percent
*d. 100 percent

The National Voter Registration Act of 1993 permits citizens to register to vote when they _____
*a. turn eighteen
b. graduate from high school
c. register for Selective Service *d. receive their driver's license According to widely acclaimed law professor Jeffrey Rosen, "_____ has more power in determining who can speak and who can be heard around the globe than any Supreme Court justice, any king or any president."

a. MySpace
b. Twitter
c. SnapChat
*d. Facebook

When it comes to patriotism, only 49 percent of _____ claim to patriotic (compared to 75 percent of _____)

a. millennials; generation X members *b. millennials; baby boomers
c. generation X members; millennials
d. baby boomers; millennials _____ vote less than other age groups both in the United States and in many other nations.

a. Baby Boomers
b. "Matures"
*c. Millennials
d. Generation X members